

Retirement Village Disclosure Statement

Retirement Villages Act 1999, Section 18(3A)

The village operator must give you this disclosure statement at least 14 days before you enter into a village contract. Your village contract will contain more detail about the matters in this disclosure statement.

Important Considerations for residents:

- Read this document carefully and seek independent legal or financial advice if you are unsure about any details. It is important that you understand this information and what it means for you.
- After signing the village contract, you will have a 7 business-day cooling-off period. During this period, you can change your mind, and the operator will repay you the money that you have paid under the contract. However, you may be required to pay other charges.
- After you move in, you have a 90 day settling in period (unless otherwise agreed between the operator and resident) where you can end the contract.
- Think carefully about whether living in a retirement village is right for you before you sign a contract.

Why is this important?

Moving into a retirement village is a big decision. This document helps you understand:

- the costs of entering, living in, and leaving the village
- what services and facilities are provided
- details about the village.
